"Making the Sea more human"

The project focuses on rebuilding the concepts of maritime and ocean law, given the expansion of human activities at sea. The sea is one of our new frontiers.

The development of human activities at sea has led to a transformation of the Law of the Sea and Maritime Law.

The main purpose of law is to civilize the new activities opened up by technological innovations.
Towards new maritime law?

Common concepts to define and regulate human activities at sea

WP1 Merchant navy globalisation
seafarers social conditions

WP2 Illegal activities at sea
questioning state competencies

WP3 Offshore activities
social and environmental issues

WP4 New activities at sea
