 9 DECEMBER 1986
 PROCEDURES

0900 DOORS OPEN - Ushers ready

0930 MUSICAL SELECTIONS, The Malmoe City Ensemble

Guests commence to arrive.
 Ushers seat the guests and give each a Graduation Programme. Guests with tickets to reserved seating are shown to those sections.

Professor Houssin in charge of ushers and seating arrangements. Mr. Jan Horck and Mr. Mats Johansson assist Professor Houssin in receiving guests at the entrance.

0930 ACADEMIC PROCESSION FORMS

The procession participants will form in the designated areas of the City Hall. The Grand Marshal, Professor Os, and his assistants will utilize precise lists to ensure appropriate sequence. This is particularly important for the graduating students since it must coincide with the sequence of crossing the platform to receive the diploma.

CEREMONY COMMENCES (Grand Marshal gives signal from entry door)

The Ensemble sounds a brass fanfare and then commences the processional music.

The Academic Procession enters the hall, proceeding at a measured and dignified cadence.

The Grand Marshal leads the way and presides over the routing of the units in the procession. The seating plan is attached to this memorandum of procedures. On reaching their assigned seats, the procession remains standing.

When the procession is completed, the Ensemble terminates the music.

1010 RECTOR

"Please be seated"

RECTOR MAKES WELCOMING REMARKS.

1020 RECTOR

"The Vice Rector of the World Maritime University. Professor Guenther Zade."

VICE RECTOR MAKES REMARKS.

1030 RECTOR

"The Chairman of the Malmö City Council, Mr. Percy Liedholm."

CHAIRMAN MAKES REMARKS.

1040 RECTOR

"Her Excellency Mrs. Lena Hjelm-Wallén, Minister for International Development Co-operation, Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Government of Sweden."

CHANCELLOR DELIVERS THE GRADUATION ADDRESS

On conclusion, Rector joins Chancellor at podium.

1120 RECTOR

"Will the Master of Science graduates please rise."

Rector, speaking to the Chancellor.

"Mr. Chancellor, I have the honour to present to you those members of the Class of 1986 who have been certified by the Faculty of the University to have completed all requirements for the Master of Science Degree."

CHANCELLOR

"By the authority vested in me by the Charter of the World Maritime University, I hereby confer upon you the degree of Master of Science according to your individual curricula in the fields of Maritime Safety Administration, Maritime Education and Training, General Maritime Administration and Fleet Management and certify that you are entitled to all rights, privileges and prerogatives pertaining thereto.

1130 DELIVERY OF DIPLOMAS/CERTIFICATES

Chancellor then takes station to left of platform.

Vice Rector stands left and slightly back of Chancellor. He hands each certificate to Chancellor as the graduate's name is called. He is assisted by Mr. Hans van Walen who has certificates organized on a table behind platform.

The Grand Marshal leads the graduates single file to the foot of the steps at right of platform where they wait their turn. Each commences to ascend the steps only when their name is read. Each graduate then walks to the Chancellor and pauses. He/she receives a handshake with the right hand. The certificate is passed to them by the Chancellor. The graduate then continues across the stage, returns to his/her chair, and sits down.

The graduates names are pronounced from a microphone at the right of the platform by Miss Alison Howe.

Before the name of the first student in each curriculum is pronounced, the announcer will say

"Recipients of the Degree of Master of Science in

Maritime Safety Administration
(Marine Engineering)

In like manner:

Maritime Education and Training
(Marine Engineering)
General Maritime Administration
Maritime Safety Administration (Nautical)
Maritime Education and Training (Nautical)
Fleet Management

As the handshake occurs, a photo will be taken by a photographer and later presented to the graduate.

When he has delivered the last certificate the Chancellor leads the applause for the graduates.

The Chancellor, Vice Rector, Announcer and Hans van Walen then return to their seats.

RECTOR

"The Chairman of the Student Council,
Mr. Ridha Bougatfa"

STUDENT COUNCIL CHAIRMAN MAKES REMARKS.

RECESSIONAL

RECTOR

"Will the platform members, Faculty and Graduates please rise."

The Grand Marshal comes to platform step.

The Grand Marshal signals the Ensemble to commence the recessional music.

The Grand Marshal leads the recessional.

Sequence of Recessional is reverse of entrance,

PLATFORM PARTY (lead by Vice Rector)

FACULTY (lead by Course Professors )

GRADUATES (same sequence as receipt of degrees)

The recessional is a more lively tempo. The cadence is a normal walk. The honors have been rendered.

CEREMONY CONCLUDES

The Ensemble plays lively music as the audience leaves the hall.

The procession will proceed directly upstairs and remain in formation. The Chancellor and Official Party will receive graduates inside as they enter the door to the room where the buffet lunch will be held.

Ushers will ensure that a passageway is kept clear for guests at the Ceremony who are not attending lunch.
