CEREMONY COMMENCES (Grand Marshal gives signal from entry door)

The Band sounds a brass fanfare and then commences the processional music.

The Academic procession enters the Hall, proceeding at a measured and dignified cadence.

The Grand Marshal leads the way and presides over the routing of the units in the procession. The seating plan is attached to this memorandum of procedures. On reaching their assigned seats, the procession remains standing.

When the procession is completed, the Band terminates the music.

1010        RECTOR

             "Please be seated"

             RECTOR MAKES WELCOMING REMARKS.

1020        RECTOR

             "The Vice Rector of the World Maritime University.
             Professor Günther Zade."

             VICE RECTOR MAKES REMARKS.

1030        RECTOR

             "The Chairman of the Malmö City Council,
             Mr. Percy Liedholm."

             CHAIRMAN MAKES REMARKS.

1040        RECTOR

             "His Excellency, Mr. Sven Hultström, Minister of Transport and Communications, Government of Sweden."

             MINISTER MAKES REMARKS.

1050        RECTOR

             "The Chancellor of the World Maritime University and Secretary-General of the International Maritime Organization, Mr. C.P. Srivastava."

DELIVERY OF DIPLOMAS/CERTIFICATES

Chancellor then takes station to left of platform.

Vice Rector stands left and slightly back of Chancellor as the graduate's name is called. He is assisted by Mr. Hans van Walen who has certificates organized on a table behind platform.

The Grand Marshal leads the graduates single file to the foot of the steps only when their name is read. Each graduate then walks to the Chancellor and pauses. He/she receives a handshake with the right hand. The certificate is passed to them by the Chancellor. The graduate then continues across the stage, returns to his/her chair, and sits down.

The graduates names are pronounced from a microphone at the right of the platform by Miss Alison Howe.

Before the name of the first student in each curriculum is pronounced, the Announcer will say

"Recipients of the Degree of Master of Science in

General Maritime Administration - 1

Names then follow

In like manner:

General Maritime Administration - 2

Fleet Management

Maritime Safety Administration (Nautical)

Maritime Education and Training (Nautical)

Maritime Education and Training (Engineering)

Maritime Safety Administration (Engineering)

As the handshake occurs, two photos will be taken by a photographer and later presented to the graduate.

When the Chancellor has delivered the last certificate he leads the applause for the graduates.

The Chancellor, Vice Rector, Announcer and Mr. Hans van Walen then return to their seats.

RECTOR

"The Chairman of the Student Council,
Mr. Lamberto Pia."

STUDENT COUNCIL CHAIRMAN MAKES REMARKS.

RECTOR

"These remarks by the Chairman of the Student Council terminate the Graduation Ceremony."

RECESSIONAL

RECTOR

"Will the Platform Members, Faculty and Graduates
please rise."

The Grand Marshal comes to Platform step.

The Grand Marshal signals the Band to commence the recessional music.

The Grand Marshal leads the recessional.

Sequence of Recessional is reverse of entrance,

PLATFORM PARTY	(lead by Vice Rector)
FACULTY	(lead by Course Professor)
GRADUATES	(same sequence as receipt of degrees)

The recessional is a more lively tempo. The cadence is a normal walk. The honors have been rendered.

CEREMONY CONCLUDES

The Band plays lively music as the audience leaves the Hall.

The procession will proceed directly upstairs and remain in formation. The Chancellor and Official Party will receive graduates inside as they enter the door to the room where the Buffet Lunch will be held.

Ushers will ensure that a passageway is kept clear for guests at the Ceremony who are not attending lunch.
